(Copy of an undated letter from Mrs. Allen S. Hackett, 454 Walnut Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, to Mrs. Fernald)

Will you please attempt to trace the genealogy of my friend Mrs. Charles McLellan, 1430 State St., New Orleans? I have put her up for membership in the Colonial Dames because I thought I could easily establish her descent from the Thomas Benedict line of Connecticut. I have only the book THE BENEDICTS IN AMERICA by Henry Marvin Benedict published by Joel Munsell 82 State St., Albany, in 1870.

The line of the descendants of John Leonard Benedict is given on page 411. In the footnote page 403 Mrs. Sylvia Bull in 1833 stated that her father Jonathan had two brothers Aaron and John. On page 3 the continued footnote on the original Ridgefield Manuscript shows that Joseph's children were Joseph, Gideon, Anna, Pittman, Jonathan, Mary, Ezra and John.

It is possible chronologically that Joseph could have had a son born in 1742 (John Leonard) but that would have been twenty-two years after his second marriage and is hardly probable. Another surmise made by Henry Marvin Benedict is that John Leonard was a son of Jonathan. It could have been possible that John Leonard was a son of Jonathan and Lucy Castle who died in New Milford as Jonathan would have been nineteen years old in 1742.

I wrote to the Library of Congress who sent me a list of genealogists. I chose you as specializing in both Connecticut and Pennsylvania. I shall be glad to pay whatever is your customary fee for suc investigations.

The Library also sent me a list of books about the Benedict family which I suppose are available to you there:

THE STORY OF THE BENEDICTS

TO THE PROBATE COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Please let me know as soon as possible whether you can undertake this work for me.

(Mrs. Allen S.)

P. S. There are several other reasons beside Henry Marvin Benedict's evident belief that John Leonard was descended from Thomas although he could not prove it; why I believe he was.

Mrs. McLellan looks exactly like my great-aunt who was a direct descendant of Thomas through Elizabeth Caroline (p. 307 H.MBB.) As her ancestor James Benedict married Sarah Gregory and his brother John (from whom John Leonard may be descended) married Sarah's sister Phoebe Gregory, it would not be surprising to have such a strong resemblance crop up in two of their descendants.

If John Leonard were the youngest son of Joseph who moved to Ridgefield, Conn. it would be quite probable that he might have gone from there with his cousin James' (p. 65 H.M.B.) family to Wyoming, Pa. When during the Revolution James and his family escaped and returned to Warick, Orange Co., N.Y., John Leonard, Catharine and their small children might have escaped south by boat on the Susquehanna and Conestoga to Lancaster, Pa.

My dear Mrs. Hackett: I can undertake the work for Mrs. McLellan. When does her paper have to be submitted to Colonial Dames? I would like to have $5.00 in advance.

Notations on such card, apparently returned to Mrs. Fernald by Mrs. Hackett:

Sep. Please address me from Jun 10 - Sep. 10 as follows:

(Copy of a letter dated June 24, 1942, to Mrs. Allen S. Hackett from Mrs. Fernald):

I have consulted everything I can think of to prove that Joseph (3) was the grandfather of John Leonard or Leonard as I find it in the records.

I found only one child for Jonathan (4) and Lucy Castle which was a girl, and none by his 2nd wife.

Why you chose him for a possible father of John Leonard I don't know. I came against a stone wall, so I thought I had better try the other end. In the 1790 Census of Penn. only one Benedict that is Leonard, a few Benedicks. I didn't bother with anything outside of Lancaster. He had 2 males over 16 and 4 females, which checks with the Benedict Gene. Leonard was a weaver and taxed in 1782. I conculted one series only of Penn. Archives.

In 1732 there were amongst the Palatine immigration a Simon Benedict under 16. In 1738 Dietrich Benedict and in 1749 a Melchior Benedict. There was taxed 1779, 80, 82, 83 a Philip Benedict. He was not the son of John L. as he was only 8 years old in 1779. Not knowing his age he might have been a father or brother of John L. He was living in Manchester township.

Leonard's will is in Book R1, p. 307 in Lancaster. The only one of the name of Benedict between 1720 and 1850. Dietrich died intest 1763 and George in 1842. Benedict Gene. says that John L. had a brother George. I am inclined to think that John L. belongs to Penn. I wish I could have that Gene. home so I could consult it when things pop in my head.

Where was John L. married and what was Catherine's name, two things to be found out. They were not married in St. James Church while the the(?) baptisms were lost about the time his children should be baptized. The marriage records were O.K. until 1773.

The George I mentioned was taxed in York Co. and he had a pension which I will get, probably tomorrow.

There was a Jacob who got a warrant for 156 acres in 1765 and a Teeter in 1742.

I think I have done everything I can do here. The next step to see if John L. had any land and where he got it.

Penn. deeds usually show the transfers back to the warrant, so if John L. inherited it, it would show from whom.

We might also get a copy of his will.

Have you looked in the Benedict Gene. to see if the name of Philip occurs outside of the son of John L. I did not think of it.

I don't see any prospect of going to Lancaster before Sept. but I can have this search made, but I don't know what it will cost. If there is a ceiling on this search let me know. Bill to date $11.85; By check $5.00; Bal. $6.25.

(Copy of a letter dated July 1, 1942, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Allen S. Hackett):

I went on a ways with the Benedict.

I looked up the Pension record for George. There was no information about him, except that he had been wounded in the Rev. War so he could not work, and he received an Invalid pension, that was before Pensions were awarded. The first pension Act was 1818 and he died July 27, 1817. His wife applied for a pension in 1841.

There was part of a Bible record. It was in German, but there was a translation of it.

George Benedict m. fall of 1780 Susannah Shelter They were married by Parson Kurtz of the Lutheran Church. I believe in York Co.

Children:

George, b. Feb. 3, 1781

John, b. Sept. 24, 1782

Catherine, b. Nov. 28, 1784

John Philip, b. Jan. 27, 1787

Anna Maria, b. May 14, 1780

John Michael, b. Nov. 7, 1791

Samuel, b. Jan. 24, 1794

Susan, b. Jan. 24, 1794

Léditia (?) Lidia, b. Aug. 26, 1798

The records of the deaths were not given so I don't know whether those Mohns were living at the same time or not. But, I believe that this George is the brother of John Leonard, on account of the name of Philip appearing. I believe that the father of George and John L. was John. It might have been Philip.

(Copy of a letter dated July 6, 1942, from Mrs. Madeleine Bourne Hackett to Mrs. Fernald):

Your letters have made me so glad that I chose you to do the genealogical work for me. You have the kind of intellectual curiosity that is so valuable in such research. Stone walls do not seem to be an obstacle to you!

I am so interested in the fact that there was a Benedict in York Co. Unfortunately I do not have my Henry Marvin Benedict Genealogy Book over here. I believe I wrote you that it stated that a Benedict pastor went to Orange County and because of an Indian Massacre during the Revolution returned to Connecticut. It seems quite possible then that some of his relatives went to York Co. Of course, it is quite possible that they were relatives of the Simon Benedict of the Palatine immigration. I do not recall anything about the Palatine immigration from history. Where did they come from?

The fact that there was a Philip Benedict living in Manchester township in 1779 does make that relationship seem most plausible of all.

The only reason I had for assuming that John Leonard was a son or grandson of Joseph Benedict was the footnotes in Henry Marvin Benedict's genealogical papers which might tell why he made that assosiation. I think you are mistaken about Jonathan's having no children by his second marriage. It was from one of his descendants, Mrs. Sylvia Bull, that Henry Marvin found out as much as he stated. I believe he states that she told somebody that her father had two brothers (one of whom was named John), whose names were not recorded in the list of other brothers and sisters.

Do you think that the search would cost too much to be worth it to try to find a Lancaster newspaper of 1737 (?) that might give an account of Leonard's death and state who his parents were?

Do you think the Albany Historical Society could locate the papers of Henry Marvin Benedict?

Do not make an outlay of more than $10.00 more without letting me know to decide in advance whether it will be worthwhile. I can not put an exact ceiling on the amount to be spent.

My address until Jul. 19 will be c/o Glen Rock Inn, Montreat, N.C. after that I shall be again at 729 East Beach Blvd., Pass Christian, Miss.

I enclose a check for the balance due Jun. 24.

With every best wish for success in your work,

(signed) Madeleine Bourne Hackett

(Copy of a letter dated August 13, 1942, from Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald to Secretary of the Historical Society, Lancaster, Penn.):

I probably met you about two years ago, but I cannot find the name of the then Secretary. Hope you are the same one. I was with Miss Helen Fields. I called on her the other day to find out the latest news of the Society, but she was out.

Now, have the Church records been copied of the various churches in Lancaster? I have seenSt. James.

Henry Marvin Benedict in his Gene. has a John Leonard Benedict, which he thought was the son of Jonathan and Lucy Castle. I cannot prove it. Res. Lancaster, Penn.

In all the records I have found he is called Leonard.

There is no John Leonard nor a Leonard Benedict born in Conn.

H.M.B. says that John Leonard was b. 1742; that he d. Feb. 22, 1837, m. Catherine. He does not say where he got the dates. His will is in Lancaster Co.

Now, I would like the Church records searched for the baptism of John Leonard or Leonard, 1742, and the marriage records to see who Catherine was.

John Leonard had children: Sovenia b. 1767; Catherine b. 1769; Philip b. May 4, 1771; so he married about 1766.

According to H.M.B. John Leonard had a brother George. I find a George in York. I am sure he is the brother as he had a son Philip. He was married by a Lutheran. The record of his family Bible was in German.

My client has limited me as to money. Now, if the Church records have been copied, what fee would you charge to consult them?

If they haven't been copied, I know the cost would be more than I think she would pay for, but you might send me what your fee is and I will write her.

(Copy of a letter dated Sept. 2, 1942, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hackett):

I haven't fallen asleep, neither have I accomplished anything, but I am afraid your friend cannot hitch on the New England Benedicts. Where that Benedict got the name John Leonard from I don't know. I find everywhere as Leonard. He also has the births wrong. Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, has published the baptisms in the Penn. German, in Vol. 3, p. 266, it gives:

May 21, 1798

This Trinity Lutheran Church wasorganized in 1733; the records begin 1747, too late for Leonard's bap. but his marriage should be there. I wrote to a Genealogist in Lancaster telling her my problem, and asked about the Churches that had the records copied. I also asked her her terms. She referred me to the volumes which I have here consulted. She didn't tell me her terms; perhaps she does not like to consult church records. She also wrote me that Leonard was German and of course, having his bapt. in a Lutheran church rather proves it. She also wrote that Leonard with a number of other Germans became members of the Methodist church. Did Philip marry very young Dorothea and was Sybulla Endt, jis second wife? He could have been married at 16; by the way his name was John Philipp. Maybe that Benedict man put the John before Leonard instead of Philip. His first child that I have was b. 1788; his last Dorothea 1798, and George Endt in 1800. If we have all of the pieces there is nothing to upset my reasoning. I don't find your letter telling me not to go over a certain amount without writing you first. I think it was $10.00. I haven't used up quite $5.00, The letter is here (I just found it). While what I am getting is not what you want, it will make a good foundation for any future search. I don't see any Colonial ancestry on this side of the house.

(Copy of a letter dated March 6, 1943, from Mrs. Allen S. Hackett to Mrs. Fernald):

Since your last note to me I have waited hoping you would be able to find out more about the parents of John Leonard Benedict (1742 - d. Feb. 22, 1837), Lancaster, Pa.

If we could find that his parents were of the other Benedict family, two of whom you mentioned - that would close my search. Have you exhausted the possibility of an obituary in a Lancaster or other Penn. newspaper of 1837? Have you attempted to locate other descendants of his in Penn. who might have data?

Mrs. McLellan is anxious to have the matter definitely decided and will reimburse me for any reasonable amounts you find it necessary to expend in concluding the search.

Hoping that you may find time to work on this during this month,

(Signed) Madeleine Bourne Hackatt

(Copy of a letter dated April 29, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald apparently -only first page of it available - to Mrs. Hackett):

I have gone all over the papers on your case. I find I had done some searching after sending in my last report, but found nothing so did not report. Now, I have been to the Library and they have no papers of Lancaster Co. of the date of Leonard's death.

The Librarian of the Historical Society at Lancaster says she cannot help me.

I am sure your friend does not connect with the New England Society. If she did I am sure what records we find would not be in a German Church nor in German.

There is not a direct lead for me to follow. I don't know whether I could find anything more if I went to Lancaster. Mrs. Golden, the Sec. knows the books, but whether she is good for outside searching I don't know. I asked her about searching the Church records for the marriage of Leonard, she merely referred me to the records that were printed. I asked her what she charged to do the search, she ignored the question entirely.

Owing to the gas situation I cannot go to Lancaster except by train, and that is expensive, especially on an uncertainty. If the gas coupons after being released were only good until used, I could manage to still go on my tours. It makes me so mad, if I go out and just ride around & around the (rest of letter missing).

(Copy of a letter dated May 10, 1943, from Mrs. Hackett to Mrs. Fernald):

Your last letter was most disappointing, as it told me nothing I did not know already. I had already asked the Library of Congress if they had any Lancaster papers and had heard as much as you had from the Historical Society at Lancaster. I thought there might be newspaper records in Lancaster. It seems to me there must be some descendants of the Benedicts now in Lancaster or nearby places who might know who John Leonard's father was. We do know that Mrs. McLellan's aunt, Mrs, Julia Wendt, belonged to a group of Benedict's who had a yearly picnic when she lived in New Jersey. She died twenty-five or more years ago.

As I wrote you in my last letter, I have given up the Conn. Benedict angle but I do want to know who John Leonard Benedict's father was. I keep feeling that with all your contacts you may be able to help establish that bit of information, so hope you will keep it in mind.

(Copy of letter dated May 15, 1943 from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hackett):

I know my letter was enough to give you the "blues". I could not help it.

The following are people who are interested in Benedict, and I think Penn. Write them and see if they can help you. IfI wrote I would have to charge for my time.

1. Charles Nelson Hickok, 1300 Leader Building, Cleveland, O.

2. Mrs. Ruth Pierce McCullough, 1626 Garden St., Santa Barbara, Calif.

3. Mrs. Julia Roush O'Melia, 111 S. Market St., New Wilmington, Penn.

Do you know the magazine, I suppose one can call it, named Genealogy and History? I am going to send some queries to it, and I will put one for Benedict.

I will keep you in mind, and if you get any additional data let me know as sometimes a new clue will give new ideas.

I cannot understand Mrs, Goldren; she understands the books in the Historical Society or rather Genealogical Society. When I was there she seemed to be able to go right to the books wanted. But, when I wrote her about consulting the original records of the Church where Leonard's children are baptised, she did not answer me. I asked her what she would charge. I wrote the church. No answer. Probably it is not in existence.

(Copy of a postal card from Mrs. Hackett to Mrs. Fernald dated May 20, 1943):

Thank you so much for your letter. I have written at once to Mrs. O'Melia because she lives in Pa. and if that is not successful I shall write the others you suggest. If I am successful I shall let you know.

(Copy of a letter dated June 20, 1943 to Mrs. N. R. Fernald from Ora L. Eaton, Leon, Iowa):

I received your letter. I am trying to find out what relation I am to Wendell P. Benedict and his father's name was Nelson Benedict. We heard about this estate the 21 of April in 1942 on the Court of Missing Heirs. I believe they said Wendell was 80 years old when he died, and they said if there was any heirs they would be second or third cousins. My mother claimed she had a big estate coming to her but she has passed away and if she were alive it would be easy to prove.

I have the births of Heman Benedict's family and his children offspring. My grandfather was William. Am sending a copy of discharge from the Army: No. 113.158

William Benedict was born in Farefield in the State of Conn. and in thirty-five years old, five feet eleven and one-half inches tall, fair complexion, blue eyes, brown hair, and by occupation when enrolled a farmer. Discharged at Albany, N.Y. by Captain James W. Brockway this 7 day of August 1865.

This may help some and will send the names and birth of the Benedicts in the Bible. If you can find where Nelson Benedict is in our list, I would have my identification complete. Here is hoping you success, and if you need any more names or places let me know. I have the photographs of five or six of the Benedicts. I had them re-photographed and sent them to the Court of Missing Heirs.

(Copy of a letter dated June 11, 1943, from Ora L. Eaton, Leon, Iowa to Mrs. Natalie Richmond Fernald):

We wrote to the Library of Congress for information in regards to the research work and they sent a list of names to write to. So will write to you in regards to Henan Benedict family as he is my great grandfather. I have the Benedict Bible. It dates back to 1792. We have an estate at Cleveland, Ohio. It is Nelson Benedict estate.

What would you charge? I would like to know as near as possible what the expense will be. Let me know at once.

(Copy of a letter dated June 29, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Ora D. Eaton, Leon, Iowa):

You and Wendell P. Benedict descend from the same emigrant, but there you step. You come from one son and he comes from another. Thomas Benedict was the emigrant ancestor. found the right one.

Here is your line:

Heman Benedict (6), b. Feb. 16, 1792; d. July 13, 1845 in Orange Co.

I will begin with your line:

I think I understand about the estate now. Wendell has died intestate, proably just a few thousands. I have looked up heirs for lawyers, settling these estates. If there is anything you don't understand, or if you want more, let me know but there must be hundreds of people nearer related to Wendell than you are.

Of course I recall you and the delightful time we had when we lunched together. I wish I could help you, but I can not furnish the parents of John Leonhard Benedict, See Pennsylvania German Soc. Vol. 8 - Index to Vol 3, 4, 5, and 6. There you will find children of other Benedicts. I know nothing more about him - Leonard B. died 1837 - see Will Book R-1-307. He was born 1742. I do not have access to the Benedict History. He Benedict, belonged to a German Church.

Mrs. Allen S. Hackett, New Orleans (454 Walnut St.), Louisiana, in February wrote me concerning same problem.

I regret I cannot help you. Philip Benedict, his son, was one of the Founders of the first local Methodist Church here in Lancaster (at that time many Germans in it). See Hinke for Benedict (German) arrivals - no mention of Leonard though that often happens.

My best wishes to Miss Fields.

I put a query in the Genealogy and History. I got these two letters. I don't see that they point to the solution, but am sending them to you. One does give a new reference.

(Letter from Mrs. Hackett dated September 26, 1943, to Mrs. Fernald):

At last I have returned from Pass Christian and I am starting all my written work. First on my list is getting Mrs. McLellan's ancestry completed. I was so delighted to receive your second August letter giving the verified Benedict line from Detrick Benedict who qualified on September 9, 1738. I know therefore that Mrs. McLellan is not related to me through her Benedict line, but I do not yet know if either Detrick or his son Leonard 1742-1832 did anything for his country that would entitle Mrs, McLellan to membership in the Colonial Dames. I am therefore writing direct to Myra R. Druckenmiller, 319 N. Keystone Ave., Sayre, Pa., asking her if she has such information. I hope this is the correct thing to do. I should not want to go over your hear but you wrote earlier that I might write direct to those others. (They were not able to help me.)

Mrs. Felder, our Colonial Dames President, telephoned me asking that I hasten my inquiries as the time limit will soon expire on Mrs. McCellan's membership probation.

Please let me know what I now owe you for your work in putting the queries in the Hartford Times and the Genealogy and History. Thank you so much for all your help.

(Copy of a letter dated Sept. 29, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hackett):

Your letter just received, and as I am at home today, I am answering it immediately. It was perfectly all right for you to write Miss Druckenmiller. I don't like to be a middle man; if I had wanted to keep the thing in my hand, I would not have sent the letter, but would have sent only the information for a price.

I have my doubts that Detrick or Leonard did anything to entitle Mrs. McLellan to join the Colonial Dames. I have looked over my notes that I took but as I could prove nothing I did not send them to you. This from Rupp:

Sept. 9, 1738 Palatines imported in the snow Two Sisters, 110 souls  Diedrich Benedict. That date does not go back far enough for the Colonial Dames, does it?

I don't think she could even qualify for the D.A.C. on that line. I am not a member but there are those who are members on my ancestor, and he fought in the Colonial Wars, wounded at Louisville. I think $2.00 will pay me for the time and postage I put on it. It it is worth any more, it belongs to Miss Druckenmiller.

I still had another answer, from a Mr. Betts. He just copied all the Leonard Benedicts from some Genealogy. I wish I was always as fortunate in getting answers. What about her father's line? Too late for Colonial Dames, but if his ancestors were in some service of the French or Spanish Colonies in the Miss. Valley she could join the D. A. C.

Shepler had a son, Jenkins Fitzgerald, who may be living in Washington.

You may find some data on the above officers which might lead to older data. I understand that Taylor wrote history on the family and that his wife, who was living in Fla., in 1939, had this history stored with her things at Washington.

I asked Martha Swails, now dead, a double cousin of above Taylor Fitzgerald, if she could remember where the family may have lived at one time. She said they spoke of Green Braier river and had a picture of same. Another descendant said Joseph H. Fitzgerald went to Tenn. before he went to Ky., and then Ind.

There are Fitzgerald notes by some Desmond Fitzgerald, only 75 copies - privately printed. I don't know whether it is our family, as I could never locate notes.

Dear Mrs. Fernald:

I have tried to inclose bits of data that might help you. I feel that you might find something in records of the Fitzgeralds now living in Washington or record of one buried at Arlington.

(Copy of letter from Mrs Hamilton (Mrs. Frank Hamilton) 2258 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis, Indi. to Mrs. Fernald):

In receipt of your letter of July 5th; -

Joseph Hawkins Fitzgerald born July 30, 1772, Amherst Co., Va. near Staunton, Va., died Feb. 18, 1854, Ripley Co., Ind., buried near Manchester, Ind., married June 4, 1799 to Catherine Parkhurst, b. Feb. 25, 1781, Sandtown, Yellowstone Co., New Jersey; died Sept. 28, 1868, Acton, Ind., buried there. NOTE: You said in one of your letters that there was no Sandtown, Yellowstone Co., N. J. I am only stating the above birth place of Catherine as it was sent to me, having been copied from a bible owned by her granddaughter.

This was also sent to me, as copied from a Diary which belonged to the same granddaughter. "Catherine's father emigrated to Kentucky and settled near a government fort."

Following from same granddaughter's bible. "Joseph Hawkins Fitzgerald served in 1792 under "Mad Anthony Wayne," Culpepper Co. Va. Was in the battle of Fort Recovery and was one of the thirty-seven who held the fort. When Wayne met them he rubbed the shoulders of every man, saying they were the "Bravest boys in the world," and they should have a handsome present on reaching Washington."

Another granddaughter told me that Joseph Hawkins Fitzgerald bought some land from Catherine's father, in N.J. where he had a hat shop. She also said that Joseph and wife emigrated to Hoone and then to Henry Cos. Ky. Later coming to Ind. She also stated that they lived some place near or on the banks of the Green Brier River.

From Veterans Administration, Washington, D.C., Dec. 22, 1939. "Joseph Fitzgerald was b. in Amherst Co., Va. date and names of his parents are not stated." "Joseph Fitzgerald enlisted in Staunton, Augusta County, Va., served as private in the Fourth Sub Legion in Captain Alexander Gibson's Company under Gen. Anthony Wayne in the Indian Wars and was discharged July 13, 1795, having served three years." May 6, 1951, he applied for bounty land at which time he was seventy-nine years old and a resident of Ripley Co., Ind. On account of his services in the Indian wars he was allowed one hundred sixty acres of bounty land, on Warrant No. 14554, under Act of Sept. 28, 1850." "For information in regard to location of land address - Commissioner of General Land Office, Washington, D. C. and furnish that official the number of the Warrant, acreage, and date of the act."

I would suggest that you might find some date in records of some of the military records of Joseph's des. who have passed away or who are high ups at present, and whose families may live in Washington. I gave you their names.

In service: Maj. Donald David Fitzgerald, b. Dec. 13, 1896, son of Wm. Taylor Fitzgerald, who died Feb. 25, 1931, in Miami, Fla. and was buried in Washington D. C. He was a patent attorney. Wm. H A G E R

(Copy of a letter dated July 22, 1943, from Frank L. Hager, 1201 White Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan, to Mrs, Natalie R. Fernald);

Dr. John W. Schodl, 917 Forest Ave., this city, has heartily recommended you to me as an excellent searcher of old census records.

It is my desire to get transcripts of Hager names especially that may be found in the old schedules beginning with the 1800 census and continuing down to 1850 or 1860. The first undertaking is the search of the census records of Fayette, Washington and Greene Counties, of Pennsylvania.

I have spent many weeks over a long period of time in gathering data on my Hager family. But some members of the family have eluded my efforts to locate them particularly those who removed to western Pennsylvania just before 1800, followed by others before 1820. Some of them seem to have been "landless", for I have not turned them up in a search of the County records of southwest Pennsylvania, although I have the names and some slight data of a few of them.

Would you be willing to undertake this task for me? I suppose that you are quite busy with similar work for other "clients." I would ask that you keep me in mind when you will have time to spare for me.

Dr. Schodl has told me the terms that you ask for services of this kind. They are satisfactory to me.

My Ann Arbor address is for the summer and early fall. My permanent address is 204 Spring Street, Fayette, Missouri. I have been for many years on the faculty of Central College in that town.

I collaborated with Dr. Scholl to some extent on his Scholl-Shull genealogy, and I am sure that he will vouch for my integrity in business matters.

(Copy of a letter dated July 24, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. Frank L. Hager):

It would be foolish to wait to have your search made. I can undertake it. I sometimes search for several people in one day, then again, more than one might want a search in the same locality, and as I have to go over the books page by page, name by name, if I can do more than one name at a time it saves time. The other day I had a seach to be made, I found data for two other clients in the same search.

I will put you on my list on receipt of the fee in advance ($5.00).

I have three pension notices of the name but not your locality:
Abraham Hager, aged 86, res. 1840 Rutland, Worcester Co., Mass.
John Hagar, aged 82, res. 1840 Phillipston, Worcester Co., Mass.
Aaron Hager, aged 82, res. 1840 Athol, Worcester Co., Mass.

There was a Hager family in Watertown, Mass. as early as 1644.

(Copy of a letter dated July 26, 1943, from Frank L. Hager to Mrs. Fernald):

Your very prompt reply was received this morning. I am inclosing a postal money order for $5.00, the amount of the fee that you require in advance.

I expect to be a client of yours for a long time. There is much territory to explore not only for Hager data but for other data which I shall seek with your aid at some later time.

As you do searching simultaneously or concurrently for your clients, it seems advisable to indicate to you the areas in which I wish to have searches made, in addition to those areas that I mentioned in my recent letter to you (that is, Fayette, Washington, and Greene Counties, Pennsylvania, 1800, 1810, 1820, 1830, 1840, 1850 censuses).

I need also, less urgently, to have the Hager census items of Cumberland, Franklin, Bedford, and Fulton Counties, Pennsylvania, for the years 1800 to 1840 inclusive. These Hagers are not of my family, but through certain intermarriages, are, in some instances, tied in with collateral lines of my family. The court records of these counties supply very little data on these Hagers.

Then I need the census items on the Hager families of Frederick and Allegany Counties, Maryland, where my people and other Hager lines have lived, mostly unrelated to my line. These names should be sought in the censuses of 1800 to 1840 inclusive.

Washington County, Maryland, was the starting-point of my Hager family. I have gathered there a great deal of material, but not all that I need. It is advisable that you search the census records of Washington County, Md., for the years 1840 and 1850, wherein all the members of a family were named and "aged", etc. But this is not a "first" in my wants.

The name Hager of the families that emigrated from Germany to Pennsylvania from 1700 to 1800 and to Maryland as well was originally spelled Haeger, Hoeger, Heger, Hegar in the American records, but almost all of these lines have accepted and used the spelling Hager since 1800-1810.

I have studied extensively the New England Hager, Hagar families, who are of English origin. I am not now interested in them.

I should have added certain other areas which I very likely will ask you to search, although the need of doing so is not urgent. Old Philadelphia County, Montgomery Co,, and Bucks Co., Pennsylvania, the starting point of Philip Heger (now Hager) and his spreading progeny, need to be explored thoroughly, ultimately, beginning with 1800 or 1810, ending 1840. Another area is that of Vigo County, Indiana, in which Terre Haute is located. Some Maryland Hagers moved there between 1820 and 1830. The censuses of 1830, 1840, and 1850 need to be examined. There is no hurry about this.

I have taken down all Hagers and those that might be, but owing to writing or perhaps the way the name sounded to the enumerator. Example, that Hagey above, I don't know whether it was meant for "y" or whether it was a flourish of an "e".

(Copy of a letter dated August 18, 1943, from Frank L. Hager to Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald):

I have received two installments of census records of Hagers (for Fayette, Washington, Greene, Cumberland, and Franklin Counties).

I am sure that you have found all the Hager names recorded in the series of census schedules examined by you. But the enumerators seem to have missed some Hager families who are on record in public documents (from 1800 to 1850) in the counties mentioned above. However, they caught a good many Hagers that I can not identify with my people. They seem to be mostly migrants from the counties to the east, a few from Maryland, and some from Virginia, especially certain families of Greene County, which was once Virginia land. None of the families, whose names bear a slight resemblance to Hager-Heager-Hagar-Heger which you offered as possible candidates for membership in the Hager tribe, fit into genealogy that I am constructing. Still, you have done the right thing in including these, leaving it to me to decide the matter of relationship.

You will find inclosed a postal money order for $25.00 to cover services lately rendered and a cash deposit for future service ($20, the amount of your bill, plus $5 deposit made in advance).

Most of these books have been mended thru the middle, where they had been folded over before begining, usually there are 3 or 4 names we cannot decifer thru the patch. The original books have been withdrawn from use. This photstat work was WPA. Some of it is done good and some is not. Now, if there are any names you wish me to check, let me know the locality and I will see if I can find out the reason they are missing. (Initialed) N.R.F.

(Copy of a letter dated August 27, 1943 from Frank L. Hager to Mrs. Fernald):

Your letter of August 25 has been received.

I note what you say about Philadelphia Co., Pa. You will note, in my letter dated July 26 last, that I specified "Old" Philadelphia County. I had in mind Philadelphia County exclusive of Philadelphia City; that is, what remained of the original Philadelphia County after Montgomery County and Northampton County were carved from it. I had in mind the Germantown area and certain townships easterly of Philadelphia in order to pick up the descendants of Philip Heger and of Philip Heger, Jr. of Upper and Lower Salford Townships originally. Some of their descendants also lived in Bucks Co.

I would suggest, therefore, that you close your search of the Philadelphia County census returns with the 1820 second volume (excluding the Philadelphia City enumeration). The later census reports need not be consulted. However, I think it is advisable to search the Bucks County (Pa.) census returns of 1800, or 1810, and 1820, or 1830.

I do not recall asking you to search the census returns for Washington Co., Md. but I accept what you have alread y reported. I have made a careful search personally for all Hagers known to have lived in that county before 1860.

Frederick Co. Md. is important to me. When that is finished by you, we shall be through with Maryland for a while.

You picked up in Allegany Co., Md. a family that I have for years tried to trace back from Fayetts Co., Pa. with a conviction that he originally lived in Allegany Co. Md. I should be pleased to learn what you found out that Peter Hager in Allegany Co. Md. in 1820 or a family to which he very likely belonged.

Inclosed you will find a P.O. money order for $12.00 which includes the amount of your bill, $7.00, and a replenishment of your "contingent" fee, $5.00.

I note what you say about Fulton Co. Pa. - that it was not organized until 1850. I knew the year of its erection from Bedford, but I had been uncertain whether it was established before or after the census of 1850. Thank you.

Captain Josiah Hall, by J. Percy Crayon, Rockaway, N. J.

In the parish of the old Rockaway Presbyterian Church, during the Revolutionary war, there resided three very prominent patriots, Gen. William Winds, Col. Stephen Jackson and Capt. Josiah Hall. Gen. Winds owned and lived on the farm now owned by Mr. Samuel Hoosy, on the then only road between Dover and Rockaway. His dwelling has long since passed away. He was born 1727, died Aug. 15, 1792, and was buried at Rockaway. He was a well trained soldier and served in the Colonial Wars.

Col. Jackson, lived in the new "Halsey"House, and was largely interested in the iron interest of Rockaway. He inherited his soldier qualities from his father, who was a General in the Colonial wars. He was born 1744, died March 24, 1812, and was buried at Rockaway. The ancestors of Winds and Jackson came from Long Island.

The Hall family came fron Connecticut and settled about 1730-35 on what is now known as the old Kitchel property. John Hall came from County Kent, England, and first settled at Middletown, Ct. 1639, and with other wearing apparel he brought with him a coat of arms, which runs are follows: Argent, on a chevron between three columbines azure, stalked and leaved vent, a mullet of six points or. Crest - A talbot's head erased ppr. Motto - Turpiter desperatur.

Capt. Josiah Hall, son of Tobias, owned and lived, and perhaps built, the part stone and frame house now occupied by Italians, near the main line of the D.L. and W. railroad in Denville, about 300 yards from the McAdam road. The farm, about 100 acres, lying on both sides of the railroad is now owned by the Kitchel family. It could not have been a very inviting spot to locate, being away from the mail roadway, and where the glazier drift had left its line of mark in the well rounded stones, too numerous to mention.

Being an ardent patriot, he became a soldier from circumstances and choice. His wife had a reputation, and like Josiah Allen's wife, Samantha, talked too much. She had a will and a way of her own that made unpleasantness for poor Josiah Hall, but as this is only a tradition, we will let it rest, he may have been as much to blame as she was. Her name was Abigail Johnson, a daughter of John and Abigail (Ball) Johnson, Jr. His father came from New Haven, Ct., to Morris County about 1750, and they became a numerous family, and married largely in the First Families of New Jersey.

Joshua and Abigail were married Sept. 23, 1764, and had two sons and two daughters. Sarah married Thomas, son of Serg. Daniel Dickerson of Capt. Hall's Co. Jan. 8, 1783, and had thirteen children, the progenitors of the Denville Dickersons; she died 1817, and was probably buried at Rockaway. Eunice married Aaron Dickerson March 3, 1791, brother of Thomas. No children. Seth married Sarah (Looker) Wheeler, widow of Joseph Wheeler, and had many descendants in the Hoppler lines. Noah married and went West. No records of this family.

Capt. Josiah Hall probably had brothers in the service of his country, Joseph, Seth, and John, and a brother-in-law, Josiah Winget, who married Kezia Hall, 1768. Winget is said to have kept the first inn at Denville and during the Revolution located a little North of the present Cramer residence. There may have been others of the family, but we have no Bible records, only traditions.

In my researches among the old families and particularly those known of Capt. Hall's Co., it is surprising to know how many of this Company were related by marriage and otherwise. There were four of the Hall and Garrigus brothers in this company. Many other local companies were also distinctly related.

From the location as studied from the old records, it would seem that every household had contributed one or more members to this company of the immediate vicinity. From the records of the Company when the commissioners were appointed May 7, 1778, to divide the company in sections for classifying them, but three of the fourteen sections are on the muster, so that this company at that date had over 250 members. There are many others who belonged to this company found in the Condict papers are Revolutionary pensioners.

The militia of the Revolution were not confined to continuous service, some served only a few days or weeks, some not over a period of three months as was required for active service, and not all were required at the same time, but were tillers of the soil and makers of iron, of which this section furnished a large supply.

The last days of Capt. Hall from the continuous service and exposure were confining, rheumatism and other disabilities, with old age, he having passed the allotted age of man, full three score years and ten, he answered to the last roll call of the patriots Aug. 11, 1810. He became a member of the Rockaway Presbyterian Church 1781, and is mentioned as a regular contributor many years. The good Dr. King is said to have preached his funeral sermon. He was famous for many very pointed personal remarks. The test: Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble," may or many not have been appropriate . From the best information, he was buried at Rockaway but no monumental record has ever been placed, and the burial place is now unknown.

The lands soon passed in other hands, and the widow was consoled with a pension, and it is said sent all his papers to the pension office, but as they have never been found, I predict that moving day or house cleaning time, the papers were destroyed or burned. I have no record of her death or place of burial, it is probable that she removed among her own people. Who can tell?

In the interest of his many descendants, I will only add his record of service as found at Trenton and Washington.

It is certified that Joshah Hall, served as Captain, Colonial Militia, Morris County, New Jersey, 1775; Captain, Eastern Battalion, Morris County, New Jersey Militia, Colonel Jacob Ford, Jr, 1776; August 1776, served one month; in battle of Springfield, New Jersey, December 17, 1776; in service for three months from January 1777; in engagement near Strawberry Hill, New Jersey; with company Stationed at Elizabethtown, New Jersey, under Brigadier General William Winds in 1777; in engagement at Ash Swamp, New Jersey, May 31, 1777; with company at Haddonfield, New Jersey, under Lieutenant-Colonel Benoni Hathaway, Eastern Battalion, Morris County, New Jersey, in 1777; Captain of Eastern Battalion, Morris County Militias, Colonel Sylvanus Seeley, May 7, 1778; with company at Acquackanock and Elizabethtown, New Jersey, under Brigadier General William Winds, 1778; in engagements at Acquackanock Bridge and Hackensack, New Jersey, September 27, 1778; served with company in an alarm in Pennsylvania, January 2 to 7, 1781; in battles of Connecticut Farms, New Jersey, June 7, 1780; and Springfield, New Jersey, June 23, 1780, served to the close of the Revolutionary War.

(Copy of letter dated November 25, 1927, from Mrs. E. P. Davis, 1526 Richland Street, Columbiam South Carolina, to "Misses Curry"):

I have a letter from Mrs. Talbott in reply to mine regarding genealogicial work. She is unable to help me correct my Hamersley line and has sent your name and address to me. Now have heard from her too, as shr says she has written you.

This much I have proof of William Hamersley in Prince Edward County, Virginia 1776; his son, Rev. William Hamersley was born in P.E. Co. 1789; my mother was a dau. of Rev. William Hamersley. I am trying to get straight the parents and grandparents of William in P. E. Co. in 1776. There was a John Hamersley in Prince George Co., Va. haven't the date but a piece of property was deeded to a man by this name who may be from the Maryland family.

I shall appreciate your help as I am anxious to correct a colonial paper.

(Copy of a letter dated November 28, 1927, from Mrs. E. P. Davis, 1526 Richland St., Columbia, S. C. to Mrs. Fernald):

From Miss Kate Curry I have your name and address saying you can assist me with the Hamersley data.

This much is correct - my mother was the daughter of Rev. William Hamersley who was born in Prince Edward County, Virginia, 1789. His father was William Hamersley living in P.E.Co. 1776 as his name is among those who signed a petition at that time to House of Del. Who were his parents and grandparents?

I find a William Francis Hamersley in Va. 169--, in Md. 169--, and Md. Ar.- says Randolph Brandt willed his daughter Margaret and heirs an island "Barbadoes" near falls of Potomac River 1696. Margaret was wife of Francis Hamersley. If you can do this for me, please give exact copy as I am to use it for proof in verifying paper.

A John Hamersley was in Prince George Co. Va. Do not know date but Dr. John Hamersley is mentioned in 1704. As I do not know amount of time you will give, I am not sending change. My reference is my husband, is a shoe merchant, his ref. Bradstreet, Loan and Exchange Bank this city. I am a charter member of D. C. in your beautiful city, U.D.C., D.A.R. etc. As I should like data at once, will appreciate very much your attention.

My great grandfather, William Hamersley, must have been born about 1750-5. Have no proof of birth. Mrs. Jessie Porter Wood has done work for me. My credit is good in N.Y., Altman & Co., and this city.

(Copy of letter dated December 29, 1927, from Mrs. E. P. Davis to Mrs. Fernald):

I have your letter and from what the Clerk of Prince Edward and Amelia Counties say it is useless to go to Virginia. W. G. Stanard Sec. of the Va. His. So., says there is nothing to prove from quit rent rolls of 1704, that they remained in the colony. A William Francis Hamersley in Va. 1671 in Maryland 1691 and Mr. Stanard and C. Browning of Pa. states this - The name is distinctly Hamersley, not Hemsley, that I know and from Mr. Stanard; we best confine our selves to William Francis and Francis. Proof that my grandfathers father was in Prince Edward Co. Va. - see Separation of Church and State in Va. by H. J. Eckenrode. Va. State Library report No. 6, 1910. It is called "The first Dissenters Petition that came in to the House of Delegates". My grandfather's obituary written by Rev. Michael Osborne 1860 says he was the son of William Hamersley and Sarah Sankey his wife, and was born April 12, 1789 near Buffalo, P.E. Co., Va. So you see for my great grandfather to sign a petition to House of Delegates 1776 and a son born 1789 he must have been between 18 - 25 years of age in 1776. First Census of Va., P. E. Co. gives his name as head of family of 4 in 1790.

William Francis Hamersley is mentioned in Va. His. Mag., don't remember volume, but this one with dates 1671 merely gives name. I had an aunt named Frances. I will give my mother's family with all I know.

William Hamersley - Sarah Sankey, daughter of Rev. Richard Sankey and his wife, a daughter of Rev. John Thomson. Their son Rev. William Hamersley, born near Buffalo, P. E. Co. Va., 1789 married 1825 Malinda Hays, born in Albemarke Co. Va. 1808. He died in Charlotte Co. Va. 1860; she in same county 1870. Their daughter born in Campbell Co. Va. 1832 name Sarah Elizabeth, married 1858 David Williamson born in Fifeshire, Scotland 1829, came to Richmond, Va. with his parents 1844, who removed to Alleghany Co. Va. where I was born. My parents are buried in Oakland Church yard near Clifton Forge, Va. My mother's father was educated at Hampden Sidney College, P.E.Co., was a Presbyterian minister, baptised by his grandfather, Rev. Rich. Sankey, 1789, so his obituary states. Perhaps this is better.

Hamersley:

William in P.E. Co., Va. 1776

William Hamersley - Sarah Sankey

Rev. William " - Malinda Hays

Sarah Elizabeth" - David Williamson

Martha A. Williamson - E. P. Davis

What do you think of the name Hemsley being the same as Hamersley? I have seen it spelt with two m's. Sorry I know nothing further. Virginia will not accept anything but from William Francis as I have stated. Does the libraru give Maryland Wills? I know how the holidays take our time and how lovely to have a son with you. So if anything can be found in Charles Co, seems that is the place to search.

Your name was given me by the librarian of Congress to connect genealogy. Will you look up the names of two men and their wives for me and name the charges? I want to join D.A.R.

and two battles the men fought in.

You will find the record in the volume on Virginia, Albemarle Co. I am sending names so you can tell what to charge for this favor. Please answer soon.

(Copy of a letter dated Mar. 12, 1932, apparently from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. J. H. Mulholland, 508 Fannin St., Shrevesport, La.)

I had to wait until I could go to the Library and see what the History of Albemarle Co. Va. gave on your family.

You have a Revolutionary ancestor on the Hamner line. But, how much research work it would require to fill in the steps depends on how much you have. As far as I know neither Richardson nor Wingfield served. My charges are $1.50 per hour. How do you know Richardson married a Wingfield, the History doesn't say so. His uncle did.

If you wish me to look this up for you, fill out the enclosed form as far as you know, and be sure and give me all the DATES that you have and where you get them. To do any work I must know as much as you do to start with, and the only way I can know without looking it up is for you to tell me. There were any number of Wingfields in the Revolution, but not many Hamners. I cannot tell you what the whole thing would cost, I might find a Revolutionary ancestor on one of your other lines easier that on the Hamner, or rather with less expense, I know he is there.

The earliest date of instrument of record in East Hampton, Long Island, is a letter of Attorney to John Hand (also one of the Grantees of East Hampton, L.I.). in relation to some lands in Stanstede, in Kent, England. It bears the date of October 31, 1649.

John Hand, the first in America, was a leading member of a company that came from Maidstone, Kent, England, about 1635. They came to Lynn, Mass., but not liking the place, they purchased a tract of land for 30 lbs. through the Governors of Conn. and New Haven, naming the place South Hampton; this was in 1644. He was later one of the original Patentees of East Hampton, Long Island. And in 1657, he was one of the Magistrates of East Hampton. Also he was one of the civil magistrates until his death. His father came with him to America, but returned to England to obtain his property and was murdered on the high seas, as he was returning to America.

John Hand married Alice Stanbrough, sister of Josiah Stanbrough. Alice married for 2nd husband, Captain Codnor. He died at East Hampton 1660. John Hand born in the parish of Stanstede, near Maidstone, Kent, England.

Joseph Hand, son of John and Alice Stanbrough Hand, born ----, married Jane Wright, daughter Benjamin and ----- Wright, 1664. He moved to East Guilford, now called Madison, Conn., after 1660. He was a vessel builder or owner of vessels, and was regarded as one of the substantial men of the town. He was sent to the general court, as representative, October 27, 1671. Benjamin Wright gave his land in East Guilford to Joseph Hand and wife, for life, and afterwards to their children. And afterwards, December 12, 1671, Joseph Hand bought all of Richard Hubbell's land in the same quarter. He was made Deputy to the general Assembly 1720. He died January 1724, 85 years old. She died December 1724.

Stephen Hand, son of Joseph and Jane Wright Hand, born March 12, 1676, married (1) Sarah Wright, daughter of ---- Wright, Nov. 6, 1700. She died Sept. 18, 1706. He was married four times. He died August 14, 1755.

Mary Hand, daughter of Stephen and Sarah Wright Hand, born October 30, 1704, married Josiah Meigs, her cousin. She died August 1780. Mary Hand Meigs, died August 1780.

Stephen Hand, son of Joseph and Jane Wright Hand, born March 12, 1676-77, married (1) Sarah Wright, daughter of Joseph and May Foote Stoddard Wright, Nov. 6, 1700.

Will you please let me know your charge for examining census returns, and also how soon you could do it.

Eleazer Clay died 18 Feb. 1863 in Farmington (St. Francois Co.) Missouri. His son Eleazer Green Clay was also living in St. Francois County. At present I am interested only in these two men.

Hoping that you can examine these records in a short time, I am,

(Copy of a letter dated July 20, 1942 from Eleanor C. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

You must have wondered what happened to me. Will you look in the 1850 or 1860 Census of St. Francois County, Missouri (Farmington) for Eleazer Clay; his wife was living in 1850; she died before 1860. I am especially interested interested in his place of birth. If you find him, send me a photostatic copy of the record. Let me know the cost and I will forward it.

In the D.A.E. Library is a copy of a Muse genealogy. Could you examine it for me? I want to know if Margaret Muse b. 3 Apr. 1737 in Virginia married James Clay is mentioned; if she is, of course, I would like a copy of the line as given in that genaalogy. Do you do this or had I better write to the D.A.R.? *****

(Copy of a letter dated July 22, 1942, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Clarence Foster Hand):

Yesterday the weather being liveable, I went downtown to do some research work; your letter came before I started, so took it along. I always take down all of the name until I come to the one wanted and here is what I got:

1850 St. Francois Co. Mo., Dist. No. 80 Aug. 6

89-89 Wade H. Clay 36 farmer R.E. $1500 b. Mo.
Henry M. " 14 " "
M.O.C. " 12 (f) " "
Cordelia " 8 " "
Volney C. " 3 " "

The number 89 means it was the 89th house and the 89th family the enumerator had visited and taken.

528-340 James W. Clay 43 farmer R.E.$240 b. Tenn.
Polly A. " 34 " Mo.
Caroline " 17 " "
Franklin " 16 " " "
William " 13 " "
Susanna " 11 " "
Katherine " 10 " "
Nancy J. " 8 " "
Elizabeth " 6 " "
John " 4 " "
Eleanor " 7/12 " "

You see the numbers are not the same in this case; it shows that somewhere along the line there were more than one family in the house.

Oct. 8. 590-603 Eleazer Clay 70 farmer R.E. $5400 b. Va.

Mary " 66 " S.C.

I ordered the photostat; at that time my brain was not working, and I gave my address to have it sent, instead of to your address. The cost can come out of the $5.00.

I will look in the Muse Gen. for you at the D.A.R. Library. It is all in my line of work. *****

(Copy of letter dated March 8, 1943, from Eleanor C. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

I do hope you can look up some census records for me, and what is your charge for your time and if we find a helpful record for a photostat of it. You see it is for proof of a Colonial Dame paper.

Census for 1850, Scott County, Va. for Fugate, interested in Colbert C. Fugate and his wife Sarah and his mother Susannah Fugate (b. about 1795-1800); if this Census gives ages and place of birth all right but if it doesn't the 1860 census will have to be examined.

Census for 1800, Washington Co., Va. for Joseph or Josiah Seymour or Semour who died before 1822 in that County; his wife's name was Sarah. (Seymour Genealogy p. 106). *****

(Apparent reply dated April 15, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hand):

1850 Scott Co. Va. in bad condition, so they say and cannot be consulted. You have a vote, write your congressman and ask him if these records are going to be photostated, or can he get permission to have them consulted. I have a suspicion that this is one way to withdraw the records. There are entirely too many in bad condition according to them. I am going to ask each of my clients that I cannot consult the books they want to write; if each one will do it, I think something will be done.

(Copy of letter dated May 1, 1943 from Eleanor C. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

I have just posted a letter to you and now I find proof that C.C. Fugate and Rufus B. Fugate were brothers - children of Zachariah Fugate and Susannah Seymour Fugate, so it looks as if the 1860 census was a mistake and that the Susannah Fugate living in the family of Rufus B. Fugate was born not in 1800 but about 12 years earlier. Perhaps the 1870 cenaas will correct this.

(Copy of letter dated May 1, 1943, from Mrs. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

Thank you for the Census records of Scott County, Va. I hope you will pardon me for not thanking you before this but everything seemed to be all mixed up these last two weeks. I am enclosing a check for $2.00, the amount of your bill to date.

Susannah (Seymour) Fugate widow of Zachariah Fugate and mother of C. C. Fugate died 31 July, 1874; she was buried in the Rye Cove Scott County, Va. Will you look at the 1870 Census and see if you can find her. I am interested in her place of birth. She might have been born in New York; living with Rufus B. Fugate age 31 years (Census 1860, Scott Co., Va.) is Susannah Fugate 60 Spinster. There is a chance that she may be the Susannah I am looking for, but my Susannah according to her tombstone was born in 1788.

Joseph Seymour the father of this Susannah Seymour Fugate died in Washington County before 1822; his wife's name was Sarah. You evidently found his son in the 1820 Census of Washington County which yousent me. Of course he may have died before 1810 as not one Seymour is mentioned in that Census of Washington County. I wish I could find him but I do not know where to look. Joseph Seymour had three daughters who all married Fugates -

Margaret Seymour m. Cornelius Fugate before 1822

Esther Seymour m. Robert Fugate before 1822

Susannah Seymour m. Zachariah Fugate before 1822.

According to an Ulster Co., N. Y. Deed they lived in Scott and Russel County, Va. If Susannah Fugate 60, spinster is not Susannah Fugate widow 72 I do not know where to place her. If you think we might find anything in Bursel County, please look there.

This is an entirely different line. Will you send me a copy of the 1820 Census of Kent County, Md. for John Garland Sr. If you cannot find me as he may have died after 1810, will you send me a photostat of the 1810 Census record of John Garland of Kent Co. Md., also a photostat of the 1800 Census Kent County, for John Garland. I am sure although I have not all the proof that this John Garland is my own great great grandfather.

Let me know how much I owe you and I will send a check. Sometime when you have the time, look in the Pension records and see if a ? Garland of Kent County served in the Revolution. This is a family tradition. * I want photostats of the John Garland record Kent Co., Md. 1800 and 1810 even if he is in the 1820 census.

You cannot keep too close to the census in regards to age, altho the information stands law. Ladies did not always tell their right age in those times any more than they do now. Then sometimes it depends on the one who gives the information. They may guess at it, but Susan increased her age to 13 years inside of 10.

I ordered the photostat as requested. In regards to John Garland, I did not find him in 1820. I found him in 1800 and ordered the photostat. In 1810 there was a John Sen. and a John Jr. I supposed you wanted John Sen, but I thought I had better be sure.

(Copy of a letter dated May 8, 1943, from Eleanor C. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

I received your letter this morning; thank you so much, but please tell me how much I owe you so that I can send a check.

In regard to the Garland search, here is how it stands:- A ---- Garland on the Eastern Shore of Maryland lived on a farm, etc. had 2 daughters. He may have had other children: Mary Ann Garland b. 15 Dec. 1788, Md. d. 2 Dec. 1837, Phila.Pa. m. Henry? Helwick (my great grandparents) and Rachel Garland b. 1790, Md. d. 31 July 1872, Phila., Pa. m. James Hunter. Family tradition says that the father served in the Revolution, that is not likely. It is more likely the grandfather that served. Everything seems to point to John Garland Sr. (Census 1810) as the father. Family tradition also says that ---- Helwick made spurs for the officers in Washington's army; must have been the War of 1812. Henry Helwick was a silver plater; he died, I think, in New York about 1818.

In 1755 John Garland died in Kent County, Md. leaving 4 sons - John, William, Benjamin & James. The John Garland I am interested in is most likely descended from one of these sons. A Benjamin Garland had Revolutionary service. He was from Kent County, Md. A James Garland had Revolutionary service. He enlisted 15 Aug. 1777 and died 18 Oct. 1777. A Gilbert Garland also had Revolutionary service. I do not know the County of James or Gilbert Garland. They were the only Garlands that might fit in that I could find, but of course these records were copied by me many years ago. If you think it might help, see if any of these men or their wives received a pension. Benjamin Garland looks the best bet to me because he was of Kent County. I am going to write to Baltimore and have some records filed at the Historical Society examined. If it wasn't for the gas situation I would examine these records myself, but I do not want to stay at a hotel and my niece lives in Garrison and I do not see how I could get back and forth to the Historical Society without much excitement. ****

In 1937 there was nothing that would help in the D.A.R. Library in Washington or in the Library of Congress.

(Copy of letter dated May 24, 1943, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hand):

I think I have finished your work. I am afraid I have done something queer. I looked up all the Garland pensions; I typed them, but I don't find the carbon in your folder, and I believe I have sent the copies to the wrong person. Perhaps I did send them to you and copies are buried on my desk. I hope so.

After I took the Scott Co. to be photostated, I discovered that Russell was in the same volume, so I had to wait. Then when I called for it, they said it was in bad condition. I knew better; in the end I got it, but whether it is a mistake or whether they are saying that so to gradually withdraw the books, I do not know.

Bill to date, including photostats $4.50.

To use gas is out of the question, even if you have it. I wasn't to go to Leesburg, Va., but I am a little afraid, I might be stopped.

Thanks for the photostats and the typed census records. I am enclosing a check for the $4.50 I owe you. I did not receive the copies of the Garland pensions; when they turn up, send them to me; there is no rush.

(Copy of a letter dated October 30, 1943 from Eleanor C. Hand to Miss Fernald):

Here I am again with the hope that you can help me with this search. What I know - William Elberson married in Burlington Co. N.J. 6.9.1831 Rebecca Zane; they had a son Watson F. Elberson who married Julia Ann Syron daughter of Nathaniel Syron & Abigail Van Deripe of Elizabeth (?) N.J. Nathaniel Syron was the son of Jacob Syron of Essex Co. N.J. Jacob Syron served in the Revolution in Essex County Militia.

Williyou look and see if Jacob Syron or Syran received a pension and if he did does the pension record give any information about him or his family.

Will you search the census of 1840 & 1850 of Burlington County, N.J. for Zane; the Zane I am looking for resided in Jobstown which I think is in Springfield Township. It may be a widow Zane. Look also for Elberson or a widow Elberson in the same locality.

Will you examine the census of 1860 to see if William Elberson and Watson F. Elberson were living in Burlington County, N.J. at that time. Please look in the 1850 census for both William & Watson F. Elberson, Burlington County, N.J.

As New Jersey has no printed census for 1790, will you examine the 1800 & the 1810 census for Elberson - Burlington County.

When you have time will you see if the D.A.R. Library in Washington has anything about the Syron family. I have heard it has.

A William Vanderipe of Middlesex County, N. J. was a private in the Revolution. Did he receive a pension?

I am enclosing a check for $5.00 as I do not know how long this search will take. I do hope that you have the time to do it. These families are hard to find. I could not find Syron in New Jersey Wills up to 1901.

First about the N.J. Census. In the beginning each State took and kep their own census. In 1829 Congress ordered the States to send all of their back Census to Washington; N.J. had been taken in 1790, 1800, 1810 & 1820. When the order came to send them to Washington, none could be found, so the first census in existence of N.J. is 1830. That was the first talen under the government.

There was no pension for Jacob Syron, nor Wm. Vanderipe.

There were no Zanes nor Syrons in Burlington Co,

I took some Garons down, but didn't find the names interchangeable.

The Wayne Co. Landmarks was the only reference to the Syron family that D. A. R. had.

I went through the whole of Burlington Co. You might find the Syrons in Essex Co.

That Jacob P. Syron of Wayne Co. might be a son of your Jacob. ***

I need for proof of line & dates on a Colonial Dame paper photostats, if possible, of records in the Veterans Administration Building, Revolutionary pension papers - this is the reference sent me - Moses Davis - W 3392, B.A. J/Mos. I am writing with the hope that you can attend to this for me.

Moses Davis b. 10 Apr., 1762 N.Y.; d.31 May 1839; Berwick, Pa.; m. 28 Apr., 1791. Rachel Custard b. 20 Apr. 1771; d. 12 Mch., 1853; their daughter Mary Davis b. 8 Oct. 1803; m. 4 Apr. 1822 William Engle.

Can you read this pension record & send me photostats of the needed dates & line; the dates I have given were sent me by the family & cannot be used on a Colonial Dame paper without a qualifying reference.

Please let me know if you can do this research & also the cost so that I can send a check. ****

(Copy of a letter dated October 9th 1944, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Hand):

I can read the pension record and copy whatever is necessary, but whether I can get it photostated or not I am not sure. They did stop it. I understood could not get the filmn, but how things stand now I don't know. Seems to be under the circumstances they ought to take my affidavit. ****

(Copy of a letter dated 17 February 1945 from Eleanor C. Hand to Mrs. Fernald):

When you have time, that is a foolish way to put it, for no one has any extra time these days, will you look at the Revolutionary Pension files to see if a John Aull or All of Pennsylvania received a pension. He served as a private under Captain Jacob Ashmead in the 2nd Pa. Reg. Continental line, Coll Walter Stewart, July 1778. If you find any record that gives his date of death, marriage or children, please send me a certified copy of the record. He was born in Ireland 16 March 1750 & came to America before 12 July 1773.

This information is wanted for a Son of the Revolution paper. The D.A.R. accepted the line, but I can't get him married.

(Copy of a letter dated 5 April 1945 from Eleanor C. Hand to Miss Fernald):

Pardon my delay in sending you the enclosed dollar. I do not think that Dr. John Peter All is the man I am looking for, so at present there is no need for any affidavit. It's funny because he was born about the same time as the John Aull I am interested in. The D.A.R. I believe has accepted service for John Aull and accepted the line as in the Aull genealogy, but there is nothing about John Aull, no date of death, no marriage, nothing to prove he married and had children. Thanks a lot.

(Copy of a letter dated 14 July 1945 from Eleanor C. Hand to Miss Fernald):

I do hope that you can search the Census records for me.

Moses Clayton son of John Clayton was a minor in 1784 when he was apprenticed in Chester County. He married, License dated 13 Sept. 1791, New Castle County. His father died in 1799 leaving a will & names his son Moses. Moses Clayton is not mentioned in the Pennsylvania Census for 1790. There is no will or administration for Moses Clayton in Chester, Delaware or New Castle County. I think he must have died rather young; he had a son born 1792. I do not know the names of his other children.

Will you examine the 1800 Census for Moses Clayton. I think I would examine Delaware County: if he is not there try Chester County. If you find him, look through the census records of that County to find out when at what date the name is omitted. A Susanna Clayton died in Chester County 2.6.1828; she may have been his wife or widow.

I do hope that you have time to look at these records for me, I thought I would try the Census before examining the Tax rates. If you find him, I would like certified copies of the records.

look in the 1810 Census Chester County for Moses or Susanna Clayton. She was his wife. If you donot find them in Chester County try Delaware County for 1810. If you find either one in 1810 try 1820, etc. ***

Thank you for the Finley Census records. If I don't send you the enclosed dollar I'm afraid I will forget it and owe it to you. I am still looking for Michael L. Finley. I hope you have time to look in the Census records of Lewis County, Kentucky for him - try the 1820, 1830, and 1840 Census. If he is in the 1840 Census, try the 1850. Michael was 65 in 1850. ****

H A N N A

(Copy of aletter dated February 2, 1933, from A. J. Hanna, Department of History, Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, to Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald):

The Bureau of Census has recently recommended you for genealogical work.

I wish to trace my ancestry through the Hanna line. My grandfather, Josiah Calvin Hanna (1811-1886) came from Winchester, Tenn. (pencil notation "Franklin Co."). He married Jane Catherine Donathan. He had two brothers, William Lyle (born March 28, 1807) married Elizabeth Brazelton October 29, 1828. She was born December 8, 1809) and Claiborne (married to Susan Keith). The name was originally spelled Hannah, I believe. On a tombstone near Winchester, Tenn., is recorded an E. A. Hannah, born Langster (Lancaster) S.C., September 28, 1826, died May 3, 1864. There is also on file in the Court House at Winchester the will of Jas. K. Hannah, probated 1862.

Will you let me know if you would care to undertake this work and what you would charge for checking over the census reports and gatherine what other material is available in Washington. Naturally I cannot undertake it unless the fee is a modest one.

(Copy of a letter dated Feb. 5, 1933, from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. A. J. Hanna):

My terms are $1.00 per hour so you can have any amount of time you wish. The 1850 census is the first one that gives the name of each member of the family. The early Tenn. census are very imperfect, a great many counties are missing. I don't remember but I think 1830 is about the first that is perfect. If you wish me to undertake your work, I require an advance of $5.00. I will not go beyond that, and if I cover the commission in less time I will refund whatever is left.

(Copy of a letter dated March 5, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Miss Sophie D. Bushee, 1818 Park Drive, Raleigh, N. C.):

I am so glad to know that I am not the only one whose mail buries itself sometimes. What I want is the marriage record of all by the name of Donathan. I am only interested in the men of that name, Wilkes Co. I do want a full copy of the bond. In 1790 there were five by the name in N. C., all in Wilkes.

One of these evidently was the father of a James who was born in 1790, N. C.

James was probably married between 1810 and 1820, the first name of his wife was Margaret. The dates may narrow your search down: Name, DONATHAN, before 1790 and between 1810 and 1820.

The Donathans evidently left Wilkes Co. between 1790 and 1800;where they went I don't know. Benjamin is the only in the Census for 1800. The name is uncommon. If you have any suggestions to make, let me know.

(Copy of a letter dated March 6, 1933, from A. J. Hanna to Miss Natalie R. Fernald):

Enclosed is check for $5.00 as an advance fee for genealogical work on the Hanna line. Since my letter of February 2, 1933, a cousin has written me that he thinks that the name of the father of Josiah Calvin Hanna (1811-1886) was John G. Hanna.

According to family tradition my grandfather, Josiah Calvin Hanna (1811-1886) was born near Murfreesboro (pencil addition - Rutherford Co.) Tennessee, but I am not sure of this fact. My grandmother, Jane Catherine Donathan, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Donathan. She was born October 7, 1823, at Aberdeen or Amory, Mississippi. I do not know where they were married. They lived in Illinois for a short time and also in Missouri. I shall be much interested in your findings.

Josiah Calvin Hanna b. Oct. 19, 1811, in Tenn. m. Jane Catherine Donathan, b. 1823; d. 1886, or Oct. 7, 1834; d. Feb. 15, 1885 (T.S.).

In search for relief from asthma, spent short periods in Missouri (probably a year in St. Louis), Illinoise, Miss. and possibly other states.

I have not found your Josiah Hanna. 1850 is the first census where each name is given. In Franklin Co. Tenn. I find the following:

Lile is without doubt your William Lyle. Was John C. the one you call Claiborne? His age is evidently wrong. Isaac and the rest seem to be his children but I doubt his having a son when 14 years old. Not to go back:

1 female bet. 20 & 30 (Eliz. 21)
1 " under 5 (Jean)

Pretty good proof that Jean was 20 instead of 18, in 1840.

We also have John C. 1 male under 5 (Isaac aged 1)
1 " bet. 20 & 30 (John proves that he was 40 in 1850)
1 female bet. 20 & 30

Besides we have Joseph bet. 20 & 30 and Isaac bet. 40 & 50; Probably brothers. Either they died before 1840 or moved away. There were no Hannas in Franklin Co. in 1820. But in Rutherford Co. there was the

James I wrote you. He had 1 male under 10

2 " bet. 10 & 16

1 " " 18 & 26

1 " " 26 & 45

1 female " 26 & 45

We may be on a wrong track. You see that William L. was born in S. C. but John C. was b. in Tenn. So the parents must have moved from S. C. to Tenn. about 1810, or the one of the children might have been born when the Mother was on a visit. It is no use going forward, I shall now have to go backward. I shall try to find Josiah Calvin in 1880. That Census gives the State where the parents were born.

In 1820 the following Donathans were in Franklin Co. Tenn.: Stephen, James, John and Daniel. In 1830, Benjamin, James and Daniel were there.

(Copy of a letter dated April 11, 1933 from A. J. Hanna to Miss Fernald):

Thank you very much for your letter of March 31st with the data you gathered from the census reports. I do not know whether or not John C. was the one we called Claiborne.

(Copy of a letter dated May 2, 1933, from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. Hanna):

All the patriotic societies havebeen maving their annual meetings; inasmuch as I am a member of all of them, I have been busy.

I found the other day in the Biog. Record of Dutchess Co. N. Y. that The Hanna family originated in Mayhalland, County Londonderry, Ire. I have about 30 minutes left to give you for your $5.00. I believe you belong to the same family as John Calvin Hanna. There is only 11 years difference between your Josiah Calvin and his father John Calvin. I think the best way is to go backward. Now in 1880, Josiah and Jane were living by themselves in 2nd Dist. Hillsborough, Florida. Not another Hanna was living in the county.

Do you know where Josiah was livingin 1870? We may get them living near or with someone that will give a clue. I wish John Calvin had given a few more dates. It is so strange that these who have Southern blood don't give importante to dates.

(Copy of a letter dated May 6, 1933 from A. J. Hanna to Miss Fernald):

Thank you very much for your letter of May 2nd. According to the general reference I have the Hanna family originated in Scotland and not Ireland. There the name was spelled Hannah and the seat was Sorby Castle.

Josiah Calvin Hanna, my grandfather, came to Florida about 1852. He lived in the following counties in the order given: Alachua, Hernando and Hillsborough. I am fairly sure he was living in Hillsborough County in 1870. I think he was in the Indian War in 1856, but I have no proof and I think he was also in the Civil War, but again I have no proof.

(Copy of a letter dated May 30, 1933, from A. J. Hanna to Miss Fernald):

At the close of College on June 5th I shall leave for Woodstock, Connecticut by automobile or by train. I shall probably make several stops before I get to Washington and hope to make some inquiries regarding the Hanna family. If you have any suggestions to offer I shall be glad to have them. When I get to Washington I shall like to have a talk with you about your work.

(Copy of a letter dated June 6, 1933, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

I appreciate you note of June 1st, but I always stay at the Cosmos Club through the courtesy of President Holt. I will telephone you upon my arrival which will probably not be for more than ten days.

(Copy of a letter dated September 20, 1933, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

It was very thoughtful of you to send me that note about having found William and James Hanna in 1840 in Meakley County, Tennessee. I regret th say that nothing has come across my trail, but before I pass through Washington in December I hope to have something to discuss with you, at that time.

(Copy of a letter dated January 3, 1935, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

In Tract Book 59, General Land Office, Department of the Interior, is a reference to the fact that my great grandmother, Margaret Donathan, homesteaded land in Hillsboro County. If there are supplementary papers from which you can get me the following information, will you please do so, putting in time to the extent of $10.00:

Place of her birth; names of her parents; date of death of her husband, James Donathan.

I am also seeking the place of birth of my great grandfather, James Donathan. He was, according to a late census, born in 1790 in North Carolina. I need the names of his parents also.

(Copy of a letter dated January 14, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Hanna:)

Not much information to be gleaned from the Land Office. Margaret acquired the land under Homestead Act of May 20, 1862. She entered upon and made settlement Sept. 10, 1869, and built a house 16X12. In 1874, she was aged 84. In 1869 she was head of a family of four children.

Josiah Hanna also homesteaded. He was head of a family of a wife and two children. He built a dwelling house and four other houses, planted 150 orange trees, about 25 peach trees.

Now, we have from the Census of 1880 that the parents of Jane Hanna were born in N. C.

Margaret must have died between 1874 and 1880. Were the vital statistics of Florida kept at that time? If Tampa has a health dept., try that for her death record.

In 1870 Margaret Donathan was living with Josiah C. Hanna and his wife Jane. And that (?) she was born in S. C.

In 1869 she was said to be the head of a family of 4 children. Two men made an affidavit to it, saying tthey had known her for five years. In 1860 the census say she was born in S. C. so I think we can safely go on that. There was one child in the family. I believe you said it was a grandchild. That is as far back as we have her.

In 1850 Josiah Henna was probably in Miss. as Eliza Jane was born there in 1851. The Donathans may have been there too.

I think the next step is to find James and Margaret Donathan in 1850. The enumerator was sometimes very nice and gave more information than was re uired of him. That is the reason it is wise to check up the census even if you think you know all it might give. Try Gainesville for records; they may be fuller.

(Copy of a letter dated January 22, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. Hanna):

That James Donathan I found in Franklin Co. Tenn. in 1820 and 1830 fits pretty good.

You can work on this until the weather clears up and I can get down to the Census again.

(Copy of postal card dated 13 Feb. 1935, from A.J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

I have found out nothing. The Tampa records have nothing else. Have no idea about his being elsewhere in Miss. Proceeds with N.C. Census or other leads according to your judgment - up to $10.

(Copy of a letter dated February 26, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. Alfred J. Hanna):

The Donathans seem to belong to the "flea" family. In 1790 there were 5 possible fathers for James Donathan in Wilkes Co. N. C.; namely, Jered, William, Benjamin, Hawkins and Nelson. In 1800 the only name on the records is Benjamin and he wasn't living there. In 1810, Benjamin was there, family 1 male bet. 26 & 45. In 1820, Reuben, not living there, & in 1830 an Elizabeth. In 1840, nobody.

Ashe County was formed from Wilkes in 1799 so I looked in Ash; nothing there. Wilkes is the only county the name appears in 1790. I know they have marriage bonds for that County, so I am going to write to see if I get anything that way. There is a volume of Court records that contains various information;amongst it are wills. I will enquire the cost of having it searched. The Marriage bonds are alphabetically arranged. I believe the James (rest of letter missing).

(Copy of a letter dated February 28, 1935, from A. R. Newsome, Secretary, North Carolina Historical Commission, Raleigh, N. C. to Mrs. Fernald):

On account of an inadequate office force, the North Carolina Historical Commission regrets it is unable to conduct genealogical research. However, it is glad to render assistance by referring your card of February 27th to a reliable and experienced genealogist of this city, MissSophie D. Busbee. I am asking her to write you concerning the subject of your letter.

(Copy of a letter dated March 1st, 1935, from Sophie D. Busbee, 1818 Park Drive, Raleigh, North Carolina, to Mrs. Fernald):

A postal card from you to the North Carolina Historical Commission was referred to me yesterday, and in some mysterious and inexplicable way it has disappeared off the face of the earth. It will probably turn up in the course of a few days, but in the meantime I will write you, as I think you said you wished to get some information as early as possible. As I remember, you wished a list of all marriage bonds of a certain name in a certain county - I think the county was Wilkes. I shall be glad to go through the marriage bonds of that county and make the list, giving the names of the groom, the bride, and the date, and also the bondsman, if you wish it. My charge for this work will be $2.00.

The marriage bonds in a county are filed loosely in boxes, the boxes lettered with the first letter of the man's last name. Sometimes there are two or three boxes of one letter, and each bond has to be handled and examined separately. My search, therefore, would cover only the grooms of a certain name. It would be quite a large task, as you can see, to go through all the marriage bonds of a county and find the brides of a certain name, and I would have to charge accordingly.

(Copy of a letter dated April 9, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Mrs. Sophie D. Busbee):

I am back again. See your letter of March 11. You doubt that Hawkins Donathan would wait from 1779 to 1790 to have a child. Well, it looks as if he did, unless he lost the early ones. In 1790 Census Hawkins' family consists of 1 male over, one under and 1 female.

Now, I am going to ask you if you can consult the wills for Wilkes Co. from the time it was formed in 1777 and 1800. I don't want full copies; all I need, until I locate my party, is the names mentioned in the wills. Are those wills on file in Raleigh? If on file in Wilkesboro, the trip would be tto expensive, but, perhaps you know of some one there who would do the work for me. My client has limited me to a certain amount, so I have to go slow.

(Copy of a letter dated April 8, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Hanna):

Have you anyone that will search in Winchester, Tenn.? Enclosed is a marriage bond of Hawkins. The only one in Wilkes Co. He was still there in 1790, with 4 other families. In 1800 not a Donathan family there. The next we get James Donathan in 1820 in Franklin Co. That is the 1st Census of Tenn. If you notice the Hannas and Donathans seem to have kept together. Josiah Hanna is still in Tenn. in 1840 but there were no Donathans. I went over the Co. again and find a James Downum (it looks like) and the family fits pretty good with James Donathan's found in 1830, same place.

I don't know what condition the records are in at Winchester, but, I think it is the place to look, for Wills, Deeds and Mar. Bonds. Do you know who Wesley Donathan was? He was b. in Ga. 1828. I am still within the $10.00. I am going to write Miss Busbee and see if there is a Donathan will between 1790 and 1800.

(Copy of a letter dated 14 April 1935, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

I have searched the records of Winchester, Tenn. myself and found nothing. The only thing I could find was that James Donathan was in War of 1812 - this I found there is Washington.

Wesley Donathan was the son of James, a brother of Mrs. Josiah Hanna (my grandmother). He lived and died in Texas. Wesley had a brother William who also lived and died in Texas. One of them had some (perhaps three) daughters. One of these married a doctor.

(Copy of a letter dated June 17, 1935, from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Hanna):

I haven't forgotten you, but my brain seems to go around in circles in regard to the Donathans. I think they moved around in circles also. James Donathan b. N. C. 1791, N. C. In 1790 there were 5 possible fathers for him. 1800 all gone (where?). Our next date 1823, Jane born in Miss. It seems to me there must be something wrong. You also have data that James was in Franklin Co. Tenn. We find a James there also in 1820 that fits. Did he go to Tenn., then to Miss.?

Our next date Wesley b. Ga. 1828. Again, we have a James in 1830 in Franklin Co. Tenn. Did James go from Franklin Co. bet. 1820 and 1823 to Miss., have Jane, then to Georgia bet. 1823 and 1827, and have Wesley then back before 1830 to Franklin Co. Tenn.?

James who was in Tenn. 1820 and 1830, seems to have had a brother Daniel; they lived next to each other.

The name seems to have died out or disappeared in someway. I have asked other genealogists if they know anything of the family. They never heard the name.

I am going to try one more thing. I am going to see what Newspapers they have at the Library of Tampa, Florida, from 1860 to 1870. There is a possibility that the death of James will be in it and it may contain a clue. I think that will be the end of my race, unless you have some new idea for me to chase.

Were those Mayfields that Wesley was living with in 1850 any relation? Martha the wife was 20 and Wesley was 22, so could be brother and sister. Martha was 20 years younger than her husband, and evidently a second wife. There were 2 children 21 and 12, then Martha's 2, aged 4 and 1. Martha was b. in Ala, (Copy of a postal card mailed June 21, 1935, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

Aren't those Donathans the limit? I have checked Tampa newspapers and there is no additional information there. Mayfields not related so far as I know. Possibly you can trace Jane Donathan Hanna's two brothers in Texas. Don't I owe you $10 yet? Never had so much for my money!

(Copy of a letter dated July 6, 1935 from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Hanna):

I was going to write you that you did owe me $10.00 when your card came; then I had to go to Centerville, Md.

The Donathans are worse than the limit. There were no Tampa papers here of the right date, so I am glad you were able to look.

I think you will have to try and see what we can do about Wesley and his brother William. Do you know what part of Texas they lived in? In 1850 Wesley says he was born in Georgia.

I think we will have to get in touch with some of the present day Donathan (if there are any). In that way we may get information or clues to follow.

Directories from all over the United States are here in the Library. James Donathan was born in 1790 in N.C. He must have been born in Wilkes Co. No Donathans appear in any other Co in 1790. As far as the Census are concerned they left that Co. but some may have drifted back and their descendants may be there today. Anyway it is something to start with. Then we have then in Monroe Co., Miss. and Franklin Co. Tenn. Today there are 65 Post Offices in Wilkes. The Directories are filed according to cities, so the P.O. would have to be used to look for the Directories. Monroe Co. Miss., has 12. Franklin Co. Tenn. 14. We can do nothing with Ga. until we get at least a county. If you know where they were in Texas, we can do something there.

I took a genealogist to Centerville, Md. last Monday. On Tuesday, to get started early enough to get home before dark (I don't drive after dark), we would have had to rush thru the records, so she decided to stay another night. So after office hours I drove her and a friend that went, around the town. I took each road that went from the Hotel and went as far as it was good; then came back and tried another one. I think that is the way we will have to work with the Donathans. Try possible and impossible clues and see where we land.

I am going to Cleveland, Ohio, July 17 and stay until Aug. 1. Then to Oswago Lake, near Auburn, N. Y. I don't expect to come back to Washington until sometime in Sept. The cottage at the Lake belongs to my daughter-in-law. I may stay there and I may go the last of August to Hartford, Conn. It depends on whether it gets cold or not.

(Copy of a letter dated July 29, 1935, from A. J. Hanna to Mrs. Fernald):

Enclosed is my check which would have been sent sooner bit I have just arrived here after a long motor trip up from Florida.

I'm thoroughly ashamed of those Donathans and if I ever catch up with them I'll give them a piece of my mind. No, I don't know where in Texas they lived. Quiet! I fear one kept a saloon!

Here's hoping you have a pleasant and cool summer. I'll be glad to get you to help me with the Hannas or the Donathans if you sever run across anything on them which I think is doubtful.

(Copy of a letter dated October 11, 1935 from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. A. J. Hanna):

I have found something. I had a client that had ancestor born in N.C. 1790. I did not find him and the only thing to do was to take the whole of N.C. Census for 1800. I began with book 1. I have searched 59 counties. I did not shut my eyes to other names that I was interested in.

In Lincoln Co. there was Thomas and Ann Hannah.

I am delighted to welcome so many new ancestors through your various studies. Please let me know how much I owe you. Can you tell me how I can connect any of these wretches with my own line?

(Copy of a letter dated May 16, 1938 from Mrs. Fernald to Prof. Hanna):

You don't owe me anything for the items I sent you. I came across them searching for another client. The name is so rare I took them down. If it was my family, I would search the census both ways as long as I found the name. I think we have one family here in Ky. Thomas in Franklin Co. and Thomas the father & Elijah in Bath Co. Thomas the father b. in Va. in 1790 was in Ky. as early as 1811. Isn't Va. a new place to look? Thomas and your James could have been Cousins.

It looks to me as if all the Donithans were related, and I would get all the pieces I could and then fit them in.

(Copy of a letter from Mrs. Fernald to Mr. Hanna dated May 9,1939):

I have just come home from a 664 mile trip, to Wytheville, Va. I want to look up a family of Tarter, found it was sometimes spelt Darter. The indices there were in complete alphabetical order. On my way home I stopped in Pulaski, just on general principles. In looking through the "D's" for Darter, I found the following, Of course they are all later than you want, but it may give you a clue to a new place to look. Pulaski was taken from Wythe, so perhaps there would be something there. Wythe was formed in 1790. Pulaski was formed in 1839. Marriage bonds:
